Wilder Brothers Return Once More To MarineLand

Back again for a fifth appearance at the MarineLand Restaurant in Palos Verdes are the dining establishment's perennial show-time favorites, the Wilder Brothers and their swinging Sextet.

The comedy-vocal-instrumental group just opened in the "Porpoise Room," exploding with all the iridescence of Fourth of July fireworks. Featuring a variety-crammed repertoire, their fast-paced comedy and instrumental artistry will top the entertainment bill through Aug. 12.

Highlighting the show is their big-sounding band with its fullscale arrangements. Authentic "take-offs" on the fabulous orchestras of the 30's and 40's, interspersed with comedy treatments and satirical vocals, are musical gems. The Wilder Brothers' singing talent matches their richly toned instrumentation, assuring musical vitality and foot tapping enjoyment in the "Porpoise Room."

Last appearance of the song-and-fun group at the MarineLand Restaurant was last July.

Reservations in the "Porpoise Room" are suggested.

Chucko, Famous Clown, to Be at Vel's Ford July 7

Chucko, the Birthday Clown, star of Channel seven's "Chucko Cartoons" program, will appear in person at Vel's Ford, 1600 Cabrillo Ave., Torrance, Saturday, July 7, at 3 p.m.

Chucko will appear with his popular Circus Wagon, giving away toys, gifts, food samples, balloon animals, and pictures of himself.

It has long been the ambition of Chucko to make the clown a symbol of birthdays, and to this end he has dedicated his life. "We have symbols for other holidays," says he, "Santa Claus for Christmas, the Bunny for Easter, Cupid for Valentine's Day. But, for the most important day in a child's life, what do we have? A cake!"

HEARD the one about — but we better let Bub Thomas at the ROARING 20'S tell it to you. He can do it so much better than we ever could. — All we can do is laugh ourselves into a fit when Bub starts turning the humor on.

Impersonations, mimicry, facial contortions — even ventriloquism — help the "greatest showman in captivity" put over a gag. These talents, in addition to song, dance and other stage routines are the reasons Bub Thomas is held "captive" by an audience that converges on the Roaring 20's from all over the country.

Get your Free, Funny, Funny record when you visit Bub. Also, have him draw a caricature of you. Yes, he does that, too — and with a dexterity and skill that will amaze you.

If it's laughs and entertainment you want, you will really roar at the Roaring 20's, 166th and Crenshaw Blvd.
